Girl 1: Wow, Nancy! Where'd you get that tan?

Girl 2: I spent last semester studying in Italy.

Girl 1: Really? That is so cool!

Girl 2: Yeah, Kennesaw State University has a program where you can take art courses in the heart of Tuscany!

Girl 1: I would love to do that, but I could never afford it.

Girl 2: I couldn't either. I got a Global Learning Fee Scholarship from KSU.

Girl 1: A scholarship?

Girl 2: Yeah, all students are eligible to apply and awards range from 250 to 4,000 dollars. There's a Study Abroad Fair in the Student Center on Tuesday, October 14th, where you can learn more about the scholarship and the different countries you can visit. KSU has programs in more than a dozen countries!

Girl 1: Shoot, I have to work Tuesday.

Girl 2: If you can't make it to the fair, you can get more information at www dot Kennesaw dot edu forward slash study abroad.

Girl 1: I am definitely going to apply for that scholarship. A semester in Italy sounds amazing.

Girl 2: Yeah, and I haven't even told you about Fabio yet.

Girl 1: Fabio? Who's Fabio???

Voice 3: KSU offers over 40 different study abroad programs to all different regions of the world. Whether you want to learn among the vineyards of Italy or the bustling streets of Beijing, there's a study abroad scholarship waiting for you!
